Subject: Microsoft vs. DoJ Settlement

January 26, 2002

To Whom It May Concern;

As a citizen and, most importantly, a veteran, voter and taxpayer I cannot understand why the DoJ is still wasting the taxpayers money and its valuable time. The Microsoft settlement is the face-saving end to a wholly unconstitutional, politically corrupt attack on this successful business. The depths of corruption displayed by the previous Administration in falsely bringing on this suit are, forever, a blight on this nation's integrity.

The present Administration and its DoJ representatives bring nothing but disgrace and contempt on themselves for pursuing this frivolous action even to the extent to which you have brought it today.

Settle the damned suit and get on with real problems such as the WAR!!

A less than impressed citizen, veteran, voter and taxpayer,
Jim Bronson, KC8RBI
